IN MEMORIAM

ELIZABETH NOTTINGHAM DAY

Professor of Art, Mary Baldwin College

1941 — 1956

She was known to the professional world as Elizabeth Nottingham, but to those who knew her, simply as "Mrs. Day". Her name implied a great deal more.

Although she considered herself a teacher, a housewife, and a mother as well as an artist, it is hard to think of her as any one of these roles apart from the others. For Mrs. Day instituted herself among people in every way beyond the call of duty.

As a teacher Mrs. Day gave to her students an inspired outlook on life in addition to the course; as an artist she recorded perfectly the rich return and enthusiasm she got from living. She understood life to be a great storehouse of opportunities and she invested her interest in all of them that could concern her.

For Elizabeth Nottingham the world was made with paint and canvas, and for this artist recognition meant a comprehension of a way of life. For Mrs. Day a way of life was an existence for others, and for this woman existence meant life.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION

JULIANNE RAND

President

Student Government on any college campus is viewed as a central part of the educational process, both in the training that it gives to those students involved in it and in the contributions it makes to the institution's educational objectives. At Mary Baldwin, student government has been in existence for twenty-eight years and in that time has shown itself to be indispensable in the college community.

Our Student Government Association depends not only on the Student Government officers, but on each student in the college who is automatically a member of the organization. Without this interest from the student body and the all important interest of the college administration, no student government would realize its goals.

The structure of our student government consists of three branches: the Student Board, which is the central co-ordinating and legislative body; the Judiciary Board, the student court, which constantly endeavors to instill the ideals of the Honor system in the students; the House Presidents' Council which concerns itself mainly with the students' problems of personal adjustment as individuals and groups.

These three branches together have as their goal the integration and evaluation of the college program in every respect. The broad objective of our Student Government Association is to encourage the individual in the college community to develop her full potentialities. This never ending task is the challenge which we accept and try to meet to the best of our abilities.

The Board of Review, a Student Government Organization, is composed of a chairman and four student members appointed by the Student Board. Other members include three faculty members and the Dean of Students, ex-officio. The Publications Board is composed of the editors and business managers of the current and past years of the BLUESTOCKING, Campus Comments and Miscellany. The faculty advisor of each is also included. The purpose is to increase the efficiency of the staffs and to increase the uniformity of the publications.

COMMITTEES

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Left To Right: Bryant Pope, Julianne Rand, Nancy Switzer, Nan Candler.

Six members of the Advisory Board and four student members compose the Executive Committee. These students are the President of the Student Government Association, the chairman of the Judiciary Board, the Chairman of the House Presidents' Council, and the Vice-President of the Student Government Association.

NATIONAL STUDENT ASSOCIATION

Second Row: Carlana Lindstrom, Patty Fullbright, Sara Burwell, Peggy Jorstad.*

The NSA was organized at the college in 1954, and since that time it has had as its aim the promoting of better international student understanding. The NSA has sponsored many activities such as debates in chapel, Academic Freedom Week and sponsoring Israeli students. Two delegates were sent to the summer conference in Chicago and others were sent to the International Seminar and the Regional N.S.A. conference held at Chapel Hill in February.

SOCIAL

Second Row: Ada Lou Worth, Virginia Dillon, Mim West, Pat Spärr, Jeanne Kline, Caroline Huffstutler, Carlana Lindstrom, Pat Henderson, Mary Jo Hudgins, Barbara Kohlsaat.

This committee, responsible for all social activities held on campus, has planned many parties and receptions during the year. The Christmas and Spring dances are also planned by this committee, which this year have been backed with great enthusiasm by the student body. A chairman is elected by the students and each class has four representatives.

CLUB

One of the students' favorite places on campus is the Club, and this committee's responsibility is seeing that it is cared for properly. Students and faculty gather here and enjoy bridge playing, mail call, gossip sessions and just a "break". The second floor is used for receptions and teas, and the third floor is composed of offices and study rooms.

CABIN COMMITTEE

Left to Right: Celeste Weathers, Emory O'Shee, Laura Williams, Betsy Blessing, Elizabeth Wood, Sue Ritchie, Judy Norman.

The Cabin Committee's purpose is to create student interest in the college cabin, which is located a few miles from town. This cabin is an ideal place for groups to spend a day "getting away from it all." This committee, headed by Skip Williams, has done an outstanding job.

NOOK COMMITTEE

The Nook, located in the gym, provides an excellent place for students to cook those extra snacks as well as complete meals. It is the responsibility of this committee to see that the Nook is kept in good order. This kitchen is open to students at all times.

DAY STUDENT ORGANIZATION
OFFICERS

Left To Right: Betsy Perry, Vice-President, Betty Stuart Dalton, President; Tina Cacciapaglia, Treasurer; Jo Ann Beard, Secretary.

Composed of those students who are registered as Day Students, these girls do a great deal in seeing that the contact between them and the boarding students is more varied and extensive. Aside from this important function, welfare work is another of their main interests.

ORIENTATION

The Orientation Committee is composed primarily of the members of the Junior Class for the purpose of helping the new girls get settled in their new college life. Included in the duties of this committee are planning parties, introducing the girls to new dorms, showing them campus life, and helping them get acquainted with the various organizations on campus. This year this Committee was headed by Nancy Switzer.

YOUNG WOMEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

NANCY RHOADS

President

The Student Christian Association on our campus, the National Student Y.W.C.A. and the World Student Christian Federation, of all of which we are an important part, provide for concerned students a channel for the three-fold program of worship, study and action. All activities of our organization are proposed to meet as nearly as possible, the needs which we feel in our lives for worship, for study from the Christian prospective, and for action which is motivated by a concern for all people. Because our needs and circumstances are constantly changing, the program of the "Y" is constantly altered. But the main true and unique purpose remains always the same. Hence, we feel a real part of the past tradition of the Christian world and of its present situation; likewise, a responsible bearer of its future continuance and strength.

Each person on our campus is in a community of people who find meaning in the Christian fellowship, as an integral part of all phases of life. Whether one finds her fullest and most creative life in class, in Vespers, in Dorm devotions, in discussion groups, in community service, in general campus life, or in a well-rounded balance of all, she is recognized in the Christian community as an individual of significant worth in the eyes of God and of man.

CHAPEL CHOIR

CHAPEL CHOIR AND GLEE CLUB

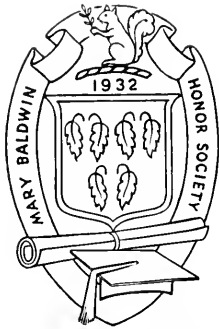

The Chapel Choir is composed of twenty-eight members selected from the Glee Club. It supplies the music for religious chapel programs throughout the year, as well as singing for special events on the campus. This year the Choir was invited to sing a program of Christmas music on the Courthouse steps, as the culmination of the Staunton Christmas parade.

In connection with the Glee Club, the Chapel Choir members were among those selected for the chorus of Menotti's "Amahl and the Night Visitors", an opera sponsored by the Glee Club.

The Glee Club, with its sixty-five members, made its annual trip to Washington, D. C., to sing at the National Cathedral Even-song service on January 13. Also in the program for this year was a concert with the Davidson Glee Club in Staunton in March.

In April, the Glee Club went to Charlotte, N. C., to sing a concert at the Covenant Presbyterian Church. On this same tour, the Glee Club sang a joint concert with Davidson College, at Davidson, N. C.

The Chapel Choir was accompanied this year by Joanne Beecroft, and the Glee Club by Ann Singletary. Both groups were under the able direction of Gordon Page.

MARY BALDWIN HONOR SOCIETY

The college honor society, organized by the faculty in 1932, recognizes and encourages sound scholarship. A limited number of seniors are elected each May to membership in the society. The annual meeting is held during the commencement season when newly elected members are initiated. Alumnae members are invited to be present for this special meeting.

The graduates of the University Course of the Augusta Female Seminary and Mary Baldwin Seminary were elected to the Honor Society in May, 1942, in connection with the Centennial celebration of the school.

ALGERNON SYDNEY SULLIVAN AWARD

The New York Southern Society and Mary Baldwin College have jointly arranged for the presentation of two medallions at Commencement each year to those who, because of the quality of their lives, are judged to be appropriate recipients of the award. While the award recognizes accomplishment, unselfish service is the fundamental principle, as this was the keynote of the life of Algernon Sydney Sullivan, whose name the award bears.

Nancy Buston

Usually one medallion is presented to a member of the graduating class and one to some other person who has interest in and association with the College.

The annual 1956 award was presented to Nancy Buston, the senior recipient: "Excellent student and outstanding leader in campus life, she has devoted her four years at Mary Baldwin College to the service of others. Characterized at the end of her freshman year as 'one of the finest girls in her class,' continuously she has justified this characterization, quietly and unostentatiously serving the community. In recognition of that service and in acknowledgment of her strength and wholesome influence in her campus life, and in anticipation of even greater future service, the Algernon Sydney Sullivan Medallion is awarded to Nancy Virginia Buston."

To Mrs. Peterson, an alumna: "A born teacher who has never taught in an educational institution, her whole life exemplifies the best principles of the teaching profession, setting an example of service to humanity that few can equal. As a young woman she founded in her home town the Shakespeare Club and an Old Ladies' Home which now bears her name. After her marriage she was for years an active participant in the Woman's Suffrage Movement; co-founder and promoter of the Child Health Organization, which preceded the health bureau in Washington. In between these activities she found time to work long and hard for Tsuda College for women in Japan, to publish original poetry, and to translate poetry from Latin and French. She has always been a generous friend to the unfortunate and has always fought injustice. Because of her unselfish service to others and because she exemplifies the highest ideals of Christian living, the Faculty awards the Algernon Sydney Sullivan Medallion to Antoinette Rotan Peterson of the class of 1887."

The Margaret Kable Russell Scholar is the recipient of an award established jointly in 1953 by the Board of Trustees and the Alumnae Association in honor of the late Mrs. Russell, a trustee and an alumna of the college. It is awarded to an upperclassman on the basis of academic attainment, high character and quality of life, and service on the campus. It carries a monetary award and certain academic privileges.

The choice of a student for this honor is made by election of the faculty. Nominations are prepared by a committee of faculty members and representatives of the Alumnae Association, and two student members. A student's qualifications for this honor will ordinarily be considered at the end of her junior year. No student will be eligible for reappointment.

THE BLUESTOCKING

Our yearbook, The Bluestocking, is published each year by the Junior Class. In addition to the staff members from the Junior Class, a Senior, Sophomore and Freshman representative is chosen from her respective class.

Through pictures of activities, classes, organizations and social functions, and through written explanation, the 1957 Bluestocking strives to cumulate the events of the school year. It is hoped that each section will hold pleasant memories in the future for everyone.

To Miss Fannie Strauss, our sponsor and advisor, we wish to extend our appreciation for the help and time that she unselfishly gives in making the Bluestocking possible.

The Bluestocking holds membership in the Virginia Intercollegiate Press Association, and the Associated Collegiate Press.

CAMPUS COMMENTS

The newspaper staff has operated successfully this year under completely new organization. With the new direction centered in specialized editing CAMPUS COMMENTS has been able to concentrate for the first time on a proper journalistic basis. With a staff of editors and a corps of reporters operating under this scheme, personal interest can be channeled in any one of five categories of coverage. This not only increases personal interest in the newspaper, but also naturally improves the quality of reporting.

In newspaper policy this year an effort has been made to maintain CAMPUS COMMENTS standards and to make of them a sound basis for a respected newspaper. With these aims has come a steady growth of readers' interest which provides an increase in the status of the newspaper.

At all times the newspaper has striven to reflect accurately the attitudes on campus and to discuss them intelligently. CAMPUS COMMENTS is considered by its staff to be one of the most important potentials in academic freedom and its aims are imbedded, therefore, in a free press.

CAMPUS COMMENTS is a member of Intercollegiate Press, Associated Collegiate Press, and Virginia Intercollegiate Press Association.

MISCELLANY

The MISCELLANY, the college literary magazine, was first published in 1899. Since then it has provided for the students an outlet for individual expression through creative writing. Although the quality of the material has tuned itself to the current ideas and literary trends of each passing year, it has always been a reflection of the literary taste and artistic interest in the college.

The MISCELLANY is a member of the Virginia Intercollegiate Press Association and of the Associated Collegiate Press.

Athletics

RECREATION ASSOCIATION

SALEND A SMITH

President

The purpose of the Mary Baldwin Recreation Association reads from the constitution as follows:—

“The purpose of this Association shall be to develop interest and participation in a diversified program of recreational activities, to promote a spirit of good sportsmanship, and to cultivate a spirit of co-operation and fellowship, within the campus life.”

If a girl makes use of the diversified athletic program offered, she will find this purpose to be fulfilled for her. Almost all major and minor sports are offered, and those who have never played are taught in order that they may improve their playing, and that they may also find enjoyment in sports.

Sportsmanship seems to be synonymous with athletics. Co-operation and consideration for others are essential in both team and individual sports and nothing is more frowned upon in games than an exhibition of poor sportsmanship, a poor loser or winner, or an unnecessarily rough player. The Association plans the program with the primary emphasis upon enjoyable recreation, and feels that participation, whether active or as a spectator, is more important than the winning of a game.

Ann Peterson Treasurer
Peggy Hankins Publicity Chairman
Judy Norman Irish Clan Leader
Barbara Kohlsaatt Scotch Clan Leader

IRISH CLAN

JUDY NORMAN

Leader

The Irish Clan Council consists of Judy Norman, leader, Ada Lou Worth, publicity manager, and the Irish sports leaders. Organized as a group in 1954, the clan works in co-operation with the R. A. Council in the Recreation Association activities. The leader promotes interest and co-ordinates the various activities. The publicity manager is in charge of making posters and promoting general enthusiasm within the clan and in competition with the Scotch.

An innovation of this year was the combined Scotch-Irish party given for the faculty, staff, and students in the Club.

SCOTCH CLAN

The Scotch Clan, led by Barbara Kohlsaat, continues to play a large role in the sports life of Mary Baldwin. Each sport is headed by an elected sports leader who organizes practices and promotes general enthusiasm. Due to the constitutional change this year each member must participate in one Recreation Association sponsored activity, which may be a team or individual sport, in order to remain in the clan.

Our social highlight of the year was a party, jointly held with our friendly rivals, the Irish.

BARBARA KOHLSAAT

Leader

HOCKEY

ANN MAXWELL

Irish Leader

ELIZABETH PLOWMAN

Scotch Leader

Concerning the true derivation of the game of hockey, there is some controversy. There is every reason to believe that hockey is of Greek origin, although the only evidences of that fact today are the figures of "hockey players" in old Greek friezes. Some writers prefer to consider "hurley," an old Irish game, the first reference to which is found in the will of the Irish king, Cathair Mor in 148 A. D., as the forerunner of hockey. An early Scotch game known as "shinty" was in all probability the direct ancestor of the modern game. In London the same game was known as "hackie," while in Wales during the same period, the game of "bandy" bore a close resemblance to the ancestor of hockey.

The weather is a large factor in conducting hockey successfully and in many sections of this country the sport cannot be promoted at all. Here, the hockey season lasts from September to November, weather permitting. Under the combined leadership of Ann Maxwell, Irish captain, and Libby Plowman, Scotch captain, a tournament of three games was played, the team winning two out of three being the winner. This season the first was tied, 1-1, and the Irish won the remaining two, one by default and the other, 2-0.

BASKETBALL

ANNE COLEMAN

Irish Leader

LAURA WILLIAMS

Scotch Leader

Basketball is the result of an experiment by Dr. Naismith to develop an indoor game to fill in the seasons between football and baseball. When originated by Dr. Naismith in 1892, the game was played with nine to fifty players on a side, peach baskets served as goals, and a football was used for the ball.

The most drastic changes in the game came during the first two years of its existence. The number of players was reduced to nine almost immediately, then seven, and in 1894, to five. The value of the game for girls was soon recognized, and in 1899, the women's rules were formulated.

The 1956-57 season was led by Skip Williams, Scotch leader, and Anne Coleman, Irish leader. The season was the month of February and a tournament of three games was played.

TENNIS

JANICE GREGORY

Irish Leader

ANNE McCLUNG

Scotch Leader

Lawn tennis is a comparatively new sport, though its origin from royal or court tennis can be traced back for centuries. It stems from royalty, yet it is one of the most democratic sports in which one may participate.

The birth of lawn tennis was in 1873 in Wales at a garden party and appeared under the name of "sphairistike." By 1874, the game of tennis spread quickly and it was then that an American, Miss Mary Outerbridge, brought the game to the United States.

Popularity of tennis developed quickly, and with time came changes in rules and dimensions of the court, until now it is a national game and has reached such heights as the Wimbledon and American National championships.

In the spring, under the leadership of Anne McClung, Scotch captain, and Jan Gregory, Irish captain, a tournament was played between the two clans.

VOLLEYBALL

HELEN SMITH

Irish Leader

DOTTIE HAYDEN

Scotch Leader

Volleyball was originated by Mr. William G. Morgan at the Holyoke, Massachusetts Young Men's Christian Association in 1895. In his search to find a sport requiring sufficient activity to be interesting, yet not as strenuous as basketball, Mr. Morgan devised the game of volleyball.

With the impetus given the game through Y. M. C. A. promotion, the growth in popularity was rapid. It was used extensively in recreation programs throughout World War I and hundreds of leagues were organized.

In 1924, separate rules for women were published and thus it has been demonstrated by wide usage that volleyball is a good game for women as well as men.

This year the competition was keen enough so that there were two teams from each clan, organized by Dottie Hayden, Scotch leader, and Helen Smith, Irish leader. The result of the season was a tie, with the Irish "B" team winning two out of three games, and the Scotch "A" team also winning two out of three games.

RECREATIONAL SPORTS

CAROLINE HUFFSTUTLER

Irish Leader

ANN COOKE

Scotch Leader

The recreational sports include pool, badminton, and table tennis. Under the leadership of Ann Cooke and Caroline Huffstutler, Scotch and Irish captains, various tournaments were organized and played.

Badminton, which is derived from Battledore and Shuttlecock and the game, Poona, came to us from England as did many of our favorite sports. However, the popularity of badminton in the United States has been latent until recent years when the interest in "carry-over" sports developed great impetus due to increased leisure and the desire for co-recreational activities. The fact that badminton may be a mild game or a very strenuous sport, depending entirely upon the skill of the player, makes it one of the most popular sports in the school and college program.

Table tennis, first termed pingpong, was for some time chiefly a parlor pastime. Only fifteen years ago the rules advised "skirts for women that clear the ground," and spoke of it as "the poor man's billiards." Good-bye to all that, for today it is a big time sport.

SOFTBALL

MARTHA CAPLINGER

Irish Leader

CHARLOTTE COOPER

Scotch Leader

Ball throwing as a sport has been practiced since the time of the Greeks. Softball, like many of the highly technical sports which we enjoy today, developed from games of early origin.

Baseball, the parent of softball, has been officially declared to be the invention of Colonel Abner Doubleday, who devised the diagram of bases and positions in 1839. Preceding baseball, the games of "rounders," an English game, "cat" and "town ball" were the most popular ball games.

The game of softball has no official inventor. It has grown from a group of games, variously known as kitten ball, playground ball, diamond ball, indoor baseball, and others. In 1923, rules were published to standardize the game, but it was not until 1932 however, that the name "softball" was officially adopted.

Sports leaders, Martha Caplinger, Irish, and Charlotte Cooper, Scotch, organized the season, and a tournament was played in the early spring.

SWIMMING

PAT ROBINSON

Irish Leader

MACKEY NALL

Scotch Leader

Swimming has and continues to hold a most important place in the program of Physical Education. Doubtless one reason for this is that swimming is not a matter of a formal class but a useful and delightful sport in every-day life, as well as an important safety device. Not only in swimming itself but rather in all water sports, there is the satisfaction of individual effort combined with relaxation which makes this activity truly recreational and one which deservedly ranks high in popularity.

Even in the early days when an extremely restricting costume was required for women, swimming was mentioned as a most beneficial form of exercise. Since then, there has been the development of an un-numbered variety of strokes, stunt and formation swimming, and also swimming in regard to form and speed. Thus, led by Mackey Nall, Scotch captain, and Pat Robinson, Irish captain, a swimming meet was organized between the two teams.

AND USHERS

Meredith West, Patty Fullbright, Ann Athey, Sue Stockton, Linda Watkins, Betty Lou Jamerson, Jamie Jamerson.

The Chief Marshal is elected by the student body from the rising Senior Class. The other marshals are elected by their respective classes and they, in turn, select the ushers.

A marshal or usher is chosen for her grace, poise, courtesy, and charm. Holding this position is an honor but also hard work. These girls serve at many of the school functions such as the King Series, school plays, programs of campus organizations and commencement week-end.

The girls always do a wonderful job in helping the students and guests of the college and by aiding in many ways to see that the functions run smoothly.

MAY DAY 1957

In connection with the May Day Committee, the 1957 Bluestocking chose the May Queen and her court as its Feature Section. The Queen and her two senior attendants were chosen from the Senior Class by popular vote, as were four representatives from each of the other classes.

The May Day fete was held this year on May fourth, in the Amphitheatre behind the Athletic Field. After the coronation, a modern dance pageant, "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs" was presented. The Spring Dance for the entire student body was held that night in honor of the Queen.

1957 BLUESTOCKING

Sometimes it is the nature of a craft to create an unbreakable tie between itself and the worker in that field, a heart attachment equal to lifetime devotion. One familiar example is PRINTING. Once editor, once compositor, or pressman catches the spirit of the shop, the spell is seldom broken. Like the odor of a camp fire, or a whiff of salt air, the beloved tang of printer's ink, symbolical of a great profession, gets into your heart and soul. School Annuals, Magazines, Newspapers and Special Printing, all smack of it. It is an invisible link that binds all intelligence together. It is the stimulus for creation in business or romance. This craftsmanship, this devotion to service and alertness to business needs, has nourished and developed an enormous industrial vitality, and whichever way the course of the future runs, the printer will always find himself able to adapt his helpfulness to new opportunity.

Years of experience have taught us! Printing Pays Us Only When It Pays You!
